Millinery!

The Latest Spring Styles!

I have just returned from Cincinnati, where I purchased a line of which are of the latest patterns and up-to-date in all respects. The ladies of Hazel Green and vicinity are requested to call and examine my stock.

TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS, HAT TRIMMINGS, &c.,

DRESS: MAKING!

In connection with my MILLINERY STORE I have a line of dress trimmings, including shirt waists, shirt waist goods, etc., etc., and am prepared to fit and make dresses in the latest styles and do all kinds of sewing.

In both departments I am prepared to sell very cheap and guarantee satisfaction in all cases.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.
Felix Craft and wife were visiting in Consolation Sunday.

Mrs. James Bise and daughter, Miss Cornia, spent Sunday on Lacy creek.

Harry Combs, of Campton, was a pleasant visitor with us last week.

Harrison Swango and wife, and Chas. Weaver took dinner with Oscar Cecil and family Sunday.

Quite a number of our people heard the sermon given by E. K. Pike at Hazel Green Sunday.

Rev. Dave May, of Bourbon county, passed through this vicinity Wednesday and took supper with Harrison Swango.

W. A. Foul, who accompanied Chas. Weaver to our Springs last week, left Friday for his home in Nicholas county.

Misses Minnie Day and Rilda Horton, in company with Eliza James and Curtis Rose, of Hazel Green, were callers at the Spring Sunday afternoon.

June 18

SUNNY SIDE.
Quite a number of young folks went to Lacy creek Sunday.

Grant Lacy, of your town, paid his homefolks a visit Sunday.

Daysboro was well represented at the Methodist church Sunday to hear Rev. E. K. Pike preach.

The attendance at Sunday school Sunday was better than usual, and several visitors were present.

Miss Alma Swango and brother, of Maytown, were visiting friends and relatives in Daysboro last week.

Miss Maud Taulbee, of Daysboro, was visiting relatives on Frozen creek, in Breathitt county, part of last week.

With this week's issue THE HERALD starts out on its sixteenth year, and we do hope that this will be the most prosperous year of its life. It has been one of the best friends the mountain people ever had, and it needs and deserves a decent support. THE HERALD and your writer were born the same year, but we never met Mr. Cooper until we were ten months old. Little did we think then that we would ever have the happy privilege of having a space in his paper. Since that time he and his good wife have been our special friends. Success to the dear old HERALD and all its editors.

June 19. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

MORCAN COUNTY.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

Mr. and Mrs. Ova Swango were visiting Wm. Blakenship Sunday.

Leander Elam, of Johnson, was visiting his son, S. H. Elam, this week.

Mrs. Tom Lee has been quite sick the past week, but by the aid of Dr. Curtis Gevedon is able to be out again.

Misses Ava Swango, Nettie Wheeler, and Mr. Cecil and Mr. Whaley, of Hazel Green, were eating sarvost berries with us Sunday.

Mrs. John Evans was visiting Mrs. Wm. Wallace Sunday, also her two charming daughters, Misses Nellie and Mattie.

Sam Wilson, of your town, was visiting Barney Blankenship and family last week, and making kites and inquiring for cotton patches, etc., etc.

Among our visitors last week were Misses Bonnie and Ella Cecil, of this place, and Misses Lillian and Lula Evans, two of Hazel Green's charming beauties.

Among our sarvost seekers Sunday, we note Misses Alice Wills, Lula and Lillie Evans, and E. O. Taulbee, of Hazel Green. Come again, folks, we are always glad to have you with us.

June 19. EINXIM.

MAYTOWN MISSIVES.

Miss Mina Nickell was visiting home folks at Toliver Sunday.

Willie Day, of Spencer passed through town Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clark were visiting relatives at Ezel Sunday.

Millard Hill, of near Pomeroyton, was in town Wednesday last.

Kash, of Stillwater; Mrs. Miles Wilson, of Lacy Creek; Jas. Lyons and family, of Texas; Everett Little and daughter, Mrs. Esther Tutt, of Hickory Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Lockhart, of Pine Grove, also Andy Nickell, of the same place; Mrs. Duleina Pieratt, of Grassy; Mrs. McGuire, of Borea; Joseph Pieratt and wife, Rev. Johnson Adams and wife, Mrs. W. P. Sample and son Charlie, Mrs. Gillie Pieratt and master Corbett Lyons and Mrs. Lizzie Ward. The table groaned under the weight of good things, and after prayer by Rev. Adams, all went home after wishing the aged couple much joy and many more happy birthdays.

June 19. LEOLINE.

All persons owing Wm. H. Cord, or the Hazel Green academy, any amount, either large or small, must settle the same at once. Do not wait to be called upon, but call upon me and make settlement with cash or "otherwise." Some accounts will be put into the hands of Wm. H. Kash for collection; when he calls upon you, do not fail to respond. It is very necessary that all outstanding accounts be closed up by July 10th. "A hint to the wise is sufficient." Show your wisdom by arranging your account. It will also show your appreciation for what the C. W. B. M. through the Hazel Green academy has done for you.

June 20, 1900. WM. H. CORD.

"A Pair of Knaves and a Few Tramps."

Dr. M. D. Flattery's latest novel is as clever as it is interesting, and the author shows us many new scenes and phases of life. Perhaps the most dramatic and thrilling chapters are those in which the life and methods of the Kentucky "moonshiner" are shown, and we suspect that the author paid more than one visit to the home of the illicit distillers to get his local coloring.

The adventures of Leslie Murray both in his college life and in his trip to the mountains to visit the "Angelic Nita" (the moonshiner's niece), the jealousy of the outlaw's satellite, and his subsequent betrayal of the secret of the cave to the U. S. Marshal, will thrill both old and young.

Dramatic and forceful as the book undoubtedly is, it is never overdrawn.

But Leslie is only a hero in the first part of the book. His character is cleverly drawn, and he carries the sympathy of the reader for his weakness as well as his strength. But when Tommy and "the Parson" appear on the scene, Leslie becomes a mere foil to their superior charms. A more lovable and purely human pair of scoundrels do not exist in fiction. Gentlemen by birth and scholars are they—but tramps and dead-beats through continued by luck, and fondness for "the cup that cheers." Humour and pathos chase each other from page to page. Rolling in luxury today, stealing a ride on a freight train tomorrow, a barnstorming theatrical tour one week, a camp-meeting and temperance lecture the next—but always interesting. We venture to predict that Tommy and "the Parson" have come to stay, as representing new types, and we heartily welcome them.

The fact that there is an absorbing love story throughout this book does not make it less interesting. The price is $1.00 per copy. Address The Abbey Press, 114 Fifth Avenue, New York.

The Farm Journal is 23 years old, prints 40 tons of paper a month, and is out of debt; has a new press that will print 100 papers a minute; it is cut to fit every progressive farmer and villager. Don't you want this fine little paper? Now we have a clubbing arrangement with the Farm Journal by which, if you will pay in advance, you can have THE HERALD one year and the Farm Journal nearly 5 years (remainder of 1900, and all of 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904) all for $1. Did you ever hear of such an offer?

Chautauqua.

The fourteenth annual session of the Kentucky Chautauqua will be held at Woodland Park, Lexington, Ky., June 26 to July 6. A splendid program has been arranged that will surpass any yet given. Some of the most notable lectures and entertainers in America have been engaged. A great musical program will be presented, and many new and special features. The detailed program will be mailed to any address upon application to Chas. Scott, Business Manager, Lexington, Ky.

There are fifty million herd of cattle in the United States, of which number from fifteen to twenty million are dairy cows. If every one of our readers would get Biggle Cow Book, published at 50 cents by the Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia, they could greatly increase the product from every cow in their herd.

The Wolfe County Bible has on sale in the office of The Mountain Messenger, in Campton, fifty dollars worth of Bibles, bought at cost from The American Bible Society sold without any profit.

THE BEST

Food for Intellectual Thought.

No man can vote intelligently unless he thinks intelligently. In this time of "wars and rumors of wars" the greatest aid to intelligent thinking and the best food for intelligent thought is that newspaper which is greatest and best.

Important political issues are daily growing more important. An intelligent understanding of the policy of a nation or a great political party is something to be desired, and it is the duty of every citizen to thoroughly inform himself upon the leading topics of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is the greatest and best of all newspapers. Its telegraphic and cable news service excels that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and world-distant, fully authenticated facts.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidate discussed. Now is the time to subscribe for the best medium of keeping in touch with the whole world—THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC.

No less worthy of attention is THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine. It is replete each issue with the best of special articles written by the best of literary talent. Its beautiful half-tone illustrations have already made it famous and their quality and quantity will be preserved.

News features of absorbing attraction are illustrated and enlarged upon in a manner equal to the high priced magazines. Even of current interest are set forth in entertaining style. There is humor in its pages, too, and for the benefit of the ladies the latest Paris fashions are each week exquisitely illustrated and described. THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine is standard.

The subscription price of THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is $1.00 per year. THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine $1.25 per year. Both papers are now being offered at the low price of $1.50 for one year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for at the same time. Address all orders to THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.

Administrator's - Notice.
